W. H. HARE,
Yewicasipi Bishop

SIOUX FALLS, S. DAK.
To THE CLERGY AND CONGREGA-TIONS OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

My Dear Brethren:

The General Convention of 1907 passed a Canon which grouped in one Department the six Dioceses and the five Missionary Districts embraced in the States of Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado. This group of Dioceses and Missionary Districts is known as the Sixth Department.

The object of this grouping is to gather together the now too much scattered religious forces of our Church in this part of the Northwest and to direct them as one great force towards the extension of our Missionary work at home and abroad.

This group of Dioceses and Missionary Districts has been duly organized. Its representative body is a Missionary Council, consisting of the Bishops in the Department, twelve in number, and of four clerical and four lay delegates from each Diocese and Missionary District—88 delegates in all.

This Council met a week or two ago in Fargo, North Dakota, where the Laity, men and women of North Dakota, had prepared for it with marked efficiency and where it was received with the greatest cordiality and generosity and its meetings conducted with great spirit.

It will meet next fall in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The presence with us here in South Dakota of twelve Bishops and the many clerical and lay delegates will be an event unprecedented in the history of religion in our State and will offer our Church in South Dakota a great opportunity of strengthening its sense of its mission as a branch of the Holy Catholic Church. It will be, also, a noble call to our congregations to liberate themselves from the little local life which is apt to hem them in and to realize that, though each one may be feeble in itself, it is a real part of a grand organism and may, if it will, make its feeble life strong in the great life of the Church and its Divine Head.

I have committed to the Assistant Bishop, who has kindly accepted the trust, the whole duty of the general superintendence of the necessary preparation for the reception of the Council and the conduct of its work. He will in due season address you upon the subject. Meanwhile, let me say that I trust that every one of our congregations will give much thought during the ensuing months to this coming Missionary Council and will make arrangements, when the time comes, to liberate its clergyman from local duties and send him, with their sympathy and prayers, to the great meeting in Sioux Falls.

It adds very much to the interest and effectiveness of the meetings of this Missionary Council that the Woman's Auxiliary of this part of the Northwest takes advantage of the Council meeting, by request of the Council, to assemble by its representatives at the same time and place. Its meetings at Fargo were well attended and full of helpful interest.

Commending these gatherings to your warm sympathy and constant prayer, I remain.

Faithfully yours,

WILLIAM H. HARE,
Bishop.
